HOME GROWN

Unique finds that fit your southern New England lifestyle

NEW GROWTH

Harbour Lighting Boutique's Brindille table lamp by Hubbardton Forge evokes stark natural forms with its subtle yet visually arresting design. Crafted from aluminum and available in soft gold (shown) and vintage platinum, with four different shade options. 16.70 inches tall by 10 inches wide. 567 South County Trail, Suite 104, Exeter, RI, 401-294-7959, harbourlightingboutique.com

STACK ATTACK

If you like stackables, then these bracelets are destined for your jewelry box. Appropriately called Four Keeps, they are equally comfortable with dressy or casual outfits, making them the perfect accessories for any occasion. Crafted from sterling silver, they are available in pink, yellow, white and black and in single, double and triple strands. Their expansion design ensures a fitted look no matter how many you mix and match. Available from M.R.T. Jewelers, 927 Warren Avenue, East Providence, RI, 401-435-3500, mrtjewelers.com.

FLOWER POWER

If you're tired of run-of-the-mill stripes, then these bold yet timeless tie designs by Trumbull Rhodes are for you. All Trumbull Rhodes neckties, bow ties and cummerbund sets are handmade in the USA using the finest cotton fabrics created by Liberty Art Fabrics of London. Available in a variety of patterns, including Plymouth, Arundel and Canterbury (shown clockwise from top). Self tipped, 3 3/4 inches wide and 57 inches long. 703-304-7116, trumbullrhodes.com

CHEERS!

Founded by brothers Will and Dave Willis, Bully Boy Distillers is Boston's first craft distillery, and its 750-gallon copper pot still produces spirits in small, limited-run batches. The company's latest release is Estate Gin, crafted in the London Dry tradition but enhanced with bigger botanical flavors and aromas typically found in American gins. Instead of just neutral grain, this gin begins with a neutral apple and grain proprietary base, which imparts a clean taste with great depth of flavor. TAKE A SEAT

They are iconic signs of summer. Seaport Shutter's Adirondack chairs are handcrafted in the company's Chatham woodshop from western red cedar. The gently sloping seat has extra slats for maximum comfort, the frame is two inches thick for added sturdiness and each paddle arm is nine-and-a-half-inches wide to easily accommodate a laptop or cocktails. Customize yours with the color of your choice, a whimsical cutout design or a carved name or company logo applied to the bottom slat. Meticulously finished with five coats of paint, these chairs are available as a rocker, settee, child's Adirondack or the "Senior," which has a specially designed flat seat to make the transition out of the chair easier. 1714 Main Street, Brewster, MA, 508-896-8900, seaportshutter.com

DRESSED FOR SUCCESS

Boston-based Atlantic Co. takes classic prints and turns them into fun fabric drink coasters that are always in fashion. Comprised of a water-resistant inner lining and an absorbent cotton outer layer, these functional textiles are machine washable and even dishwasher safe. Shown here are Patchwork Madras and Classic Seersucker designs, but Flannel and Washed Denim are also tempting options. atlantic-co.com

TOPNOTCH SERVICE

Since learning the art of pottery as a teenager, Tessa Morgan of Flying Pig Pottery has perfected the sgraffito technique, which involves carving designs through a colored slip to the contrasting clay body beneath. Whether her dreamed-up motif is flying pigs, serenading mermaids, cats chasing mice or herons catching fish, her functional stoneware is immediately recognizable for its whimsy and, oftentimes, its nod to Cape Cod's marine life. She carves her designs on tiles, bowls, vases, platters, mugs, cups and more; custom orders available. 410 Woods Hole Road, Woods Hole, MA, 508-548-7482, flyingpigpottery.biz

NATURAL INSTINCTS

An artistic floral arrangement can have a truly transformative effect on an interior, and Susan Swanson, owner of The Green Door in East Greenwich, R.I., specializes in everlasting versions. Using only the most realistic and botanically correct elements, she creates wreaths, baskets and table arrangements that range in style from lush and romantic to coastal and seasonal. Here, she mixes white orchids and onion bulbs with real shells in faux water. 130 Main Street, East Greenwich, RI, 401-885-0510, thegreendoorathome.com

GOURMET TO GO

Pain D'Avignon might be best known for its bread, but maybe not for long, thanks to its new line of individually wrapped pastries—some of the bakery's most popular. The tempting treats include rich brownie bites; gourmet granola bars; raspberry shortbread; and fig, lemon pistachio, chocolate espresso and cranberry almond biscotti. Available at Pain D'Avignon's Hyannis bakery and café (15 Hinckley Road, 508-778-8588) and online at paindavignon.com/marketplace.

HOP TO IT

Looking for a new brew to try this summer? Look no further than Shipyard's new year-round beer, Island Time Session IPA. An easy-drinking IPA, it is built with a variety of Northwest hops, which contribute to the grapefruit and pine nose and spicy hop finish. Available nationwide in bottles, cans and on draft, Island Time joins Shipyard's highly acclaimed and award-winning family of beers, all handcrafted at the family-owned brewery in Portland, Maine. shipyard.com/beer/island-time
