

Local Goodies Gift Guide

Posted on December 12, 2016 by eSS&SC

'Tis the Season!

Show your appreciation with a little something for those who've helped to make the year special. Have a stash of these high-quality, locally-made gifts ready to pass along to teachers, mother's helpers, neighbors, clients, or co-workers. Tuck in a personalized note and—voila—bring on the holiday season! (The purchase of samples for personal consumption is strongly suggested, or a depleted gift supply may result.)

Red Eye Coffee Roasters Guatemala Organic Beans: fondly referred to as liquid happiness, Red Eye Roasters coffee will brighten anyone's day. Bags of locally roasted beans are available right at the café. Grinding is available at the counter. www.RedEyeRoasters.com

Grammy Sutton's Red Pepper Jam: lovingly created by Sommers' Bounty, this versatile red pepper jam will fast become a staple in your gift stash.

Available online, at local farmers' markets, and select holiday fairs.

Sommer's Bounty www.Facebook.com/Sommers-Bounty

Acme Anvil stainless steel spoon available at Local Pottery in Norwell.

Sadie Mae's Chocolate Chip Cookies: packaged in a bag of six, tied with a ribbon, and always available on the café's counter-top, Sadie Mae's nut-free cookies are enormous (nearly 5" in diameter) and deliciously addictive.

Sadie Mae's Cupcake Café www.SadieMaesCupcakeCafe.com

Family-owned and operated Pain D'Avignon's line of packaged pastries consists of the sweet and rich Le Brownie Bite, Raspberry Shortbread, and various biscotti flavors, each item is the perfect stocking stuffer. Available at Whole Foods in South Weymouth and Hingham and on Pain D'Avignon's online marketplace.

Puopolo Candies: the chocolate enthusiast on your holiday list will savor a box of truffles or a sparkly bag of foil-wrapped stars. Upon entering the store, shoppers experience "chocolate aromatherapy" as the scent of the handcrafted chocolates wafts over them. Puopolo

Candies www.PuopoloCandies.com

Coasters with a History: created exclusively for the Duxbury Rural & Historical Society, these charming coasters come gift boxed and include a brief written history. Designs are images based on 19th-century botanical artwork or ships from King Caesar's sailing fleet.

Duxbury Rural & Historical Society www.DuxburyHistory.org

And here are two liquid assets to consider for the very-very nice on your list.

Velnias Honey Liqueur—Traditional Lithuanian Honey Liqueur. A family recipe brought over after WWII. At a full 80 proof, it's devilishly good. Drink it straight, mix it in some hot cider—this liqueur is sweet and warm, perfect for a chilly evening with friends. www.DirtyWaterDistillery.com

Cape Cod-based South Hollow Spirits offers three dynamic and delicious gift packs this year which include combinations of their new Dry Line Gin with branded tasting glasses, and three signature rums. Each pack caters to a variety of individual palates, are cost friendly, and beautifully crafted! www.TruroVineyardsOfCapeCod.com