The holidays are around the corner! Whether you have an office Secret Santa gift you have to shop for or need just one more small gift to fill those stockings, here are some ideas that should please everyone.

PAIN D'AVIGNON BAKED GOODS

Handmade bakery items from Cape Cod, bakery Pain d'Avignon offers up brownies and biscotti and other assorted bakery items delivered directly to your home if you're nowhere near the Massachusetts location. Try out the raspberry shortbread, which was my personal favorite. Visit their website here.

THE 125 COLLECTION

Who doesn't love a good-smelling candle? The 125 Collection offers a variety of candles with quirky sayings like "Eat Glitter for breakfast and shine all day". Each substantial candle is 100% soy and burns for a good 80 hours! They can even customize candles with a specific saying or quote you provide. Check out their site here.

SULU COLLECTION TUNICS

It might be the middle of winter, but that doesn't stop one from dreaming of that tropical getaway—lying on a hammock, gentle breezes blowing, with a tropical fruity drink in one hand and your favorite novel in the other.

Why not get into the mood by dressing the part? The Sulu Collection offers some gorgeous tunics and dresses with wonderful embroidery. What I like about this line is that they offer plus sizes also because not everyone is a size 6! Even if you're not thinking of a beach vacation, Sulu Collection has some cute dresses that would fit all those holiday parties you'll be attending.

LIP LUXE LIP BALM

Because stay-at-home Brenda Mierzejewski had to weather harsh east coast winters she decided to create a lip balm to soothe all her family's chapped lips. Thus Mizzi

Cosmetics was born. Using natural and organic ingredients, Mizzi lip balms are made in small batches. It's a favorite of one of the Kardashians (I forget which), but more importantly, a portion of the proceeds from the "Hope" Lip Balm purchases goes to the American Cancer Society.

WELLNESS CORE MARROW ROASTS

This new doggie treat sounded so delicious I almost wanted to take a bite! These grain-free treats are packed with protein with real marrow and judging by my dogs' reactions to them, packed with plenty of flavor too! Available at most pet retailers and online at Amazon.com.
